1. THE STARS ARE OUT :30

Hi, I'm Shadoe Stevens and the stars were out last week on American Top 40. Billy Joel debuted with his latest single, "All About Soul." Michael Bolton was back with his new one, "Said I Loved You... But I Lied." And international reggae star Jimmy Cliff returned to the Top 40 after almost 24 years with "I Can See Clearly Now." And don't forget the ladies -- Mariah Carey on the move with her new song "Hero" and Janet Jackson, up in the top ten with "Again." Join me right here every week for music's biggest stars, radio's hottest songs and much more -- on American Top 40. [LOCAL TAG]

2. IT'S THE GUYS' TURN :27

Hi, Shadoe Stevens. Coupla' weeks back on American Top 40 it was the 'show of the women.' So last week it was the guy's turn. Sting talked about rock stars saving the world. Joe Elliot from Def Leppard told us about finally coming home off the road -- 'weird.' Also had visits from Tevin Campbell and Tony! Toni! Tone! And Jimmy Cliff became the singer with the longest span of time between Top 40 hits -- almost 24 years. Join me for this week's hit action on American Top 40 -- Right here and only here on... [LOCAL TAG]

3. A WINNING ACE AND ELTON'S REUNION :28

Hey, Shadoe Stevens here. Last week on American Top 40, Sweden's Ace Of Base held the winning hand at #1 for a second week with "All That She Wants." We also looked at the lady who says she's grown up in public as performer -- Mariah Carey... Took a look at top ten 'Love Songs'... and heard a 'Sneak Peek' from Elton John -- a duet called "True Love" with Kiki Dee. Last time they sang together 17 years ago, they hit #1 with "DON'T GO BREAKIN' MY HEART." Will their new one break into the countdown? D'Shadoe knows -- on American Top 40. [LOCAL TAG]
